Dear Mr. Baggerman,

As the official Museum for the B.S.A. it is our responsibility to care for items such as your donation. On behalf of the National Scouting Museum I am honored to accept your donation referred to as Accession #2002.009 within these documents.

The National Scouting Museum is working diligently to establish a complete record of Scouting's colorful and exciting history. Donations such as yours are sincerely appreciated, and move us closer to that goal. We are most grateful to add these treasured items to our collection. Values learned through the Scouting movement continue to develop strong leaders, insuring our future.

Enclosed you will find two (2) copies of your Deed Of Gift form. After careful review of the artifacts listed, please correct or add any information you feel is necessary.

Please sign two (2) copies and return them in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible. After your Deed Of Gift is recorded, one (1) copy will be returned to you bearing our signature as well as yours. You may contact me anytime at 1-800-303-3047.

Yours in Scouting,

Dear Mr. Baggerman,

Thank you once again for your donation to the National Scouting Museum. Enclosed is your signed Deed of Gift. Please keep this as your permanent record of your donation.

The museum is going through some exciting changes and we look forward to your continued support. If we can be of further assistance please do not hesitate to call upon us. Plan now for a visit to the new National Scouting Museum to open in the fall of 2002 in the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex.

Yours in Scouting,

Elizabeth Brantley, Curator
