2010: A Race Odyssey — Disproving a Negative for Cash Prizes or, How the Civil Rights Movement Jumped the Shark

by Andrew Breitbart

As I have said over and over and over, the left has one trick that it will use again and again when its back is in the corner: shout ‘racist’ in a crowded country.

On Saturday, during the peaceful and patriotic tea party protest at the Capitol, the Democrats staged a series of symbolic acts meant to manipulate the media to do its bidding. The Congressional Black Caucus pulled the Selma card and chose to walk through the crowd in the hopes of creating a YouTube incident. This is what it looked like:

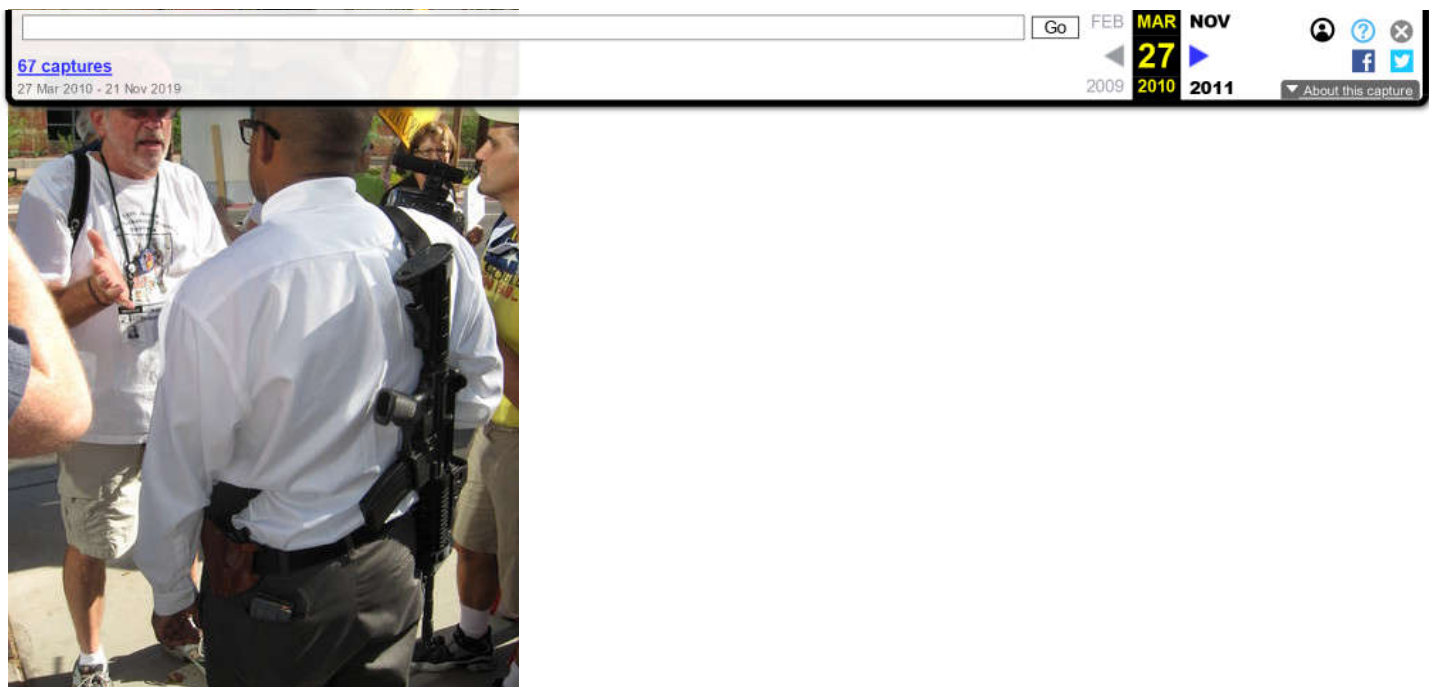

and this:

There is no reason in 21st century America on an issue that is not a black or white or a civil rights issue to have a bloc of black people walk slowly through a mostly white crowd to make a racial point. The walk in and of itself — with two of the participants holding their handheld cameras above their heads hoping to document “proof” — was an act of racism meant to create a contrast between the tea party crowd and themselves.

This is the same failed symbolism that Janeane Garofalo and MSNBC have been trying to implant for the last year. The only supposed evidence of white-on-black racism at a tea party that MSNBC was able to find was a man carrying a gun at an Arizona Obama rally. But, wait, MSNBC cut off the man’s head with a photo editing software. That Second Amendment fan was actually black. Never mind.

Saturday's "never mind" moment will live in infamy as the Congressional Black Caucus claimed the N-word was hurled 15 times. YouTube video shows that at least two of the men in the procession were carrying video cameras and holding them above the crowd. They have not come forth with evidence to show that even one person hurled the vile racist epithet. The video also shows no head movement one way or another. Wouldn't the N-word provoke a head turn or two? Is it really possible that in 2010, in a crowd of 30 or 40 thousand people — at the center of a once-in-a-lifetime media circus — not one person's flipphone, Blackberry, video recorder or a network feed caught a single incident? And if not, then at least someone could have found an honest tea partier to act as an eyewitness — or the Congressional Black Caucus would have confronted the culprit(s). If that had happened, there would be an investigation to see if the perpetrator was a left-wing plant.

Let's remember that Nancy Pelosi followed this procession with a "perp walk" of her own, as she carried the giant gavel that hammered down the passage of Medicare in 1965 to its rendezvous with destiny. Does any rational person seriously believe that the Capitol Police or her security people would have let the Speaker of the House — second in line of succession to the presidency, right after the Vice President — walk into danger as alleged by the Congressional Black Caucus? Please.

That's how much the Democrats need a racist Tea Party moment. To stop it in its tracks. That's why on Saturday they used the Congressional Black Caucus to try to manufacture the false appearance of one. And when they didn't get it, they did what they always do: they lied.

Alinsky taught them well: the ends justify the means. And that's how the Democrats play. They love using black people as symbols of oppression. They love to use them for staged rallies, staged walks and staged protests. It's why they fought so hard to keep the heavily minority ACORN alive. They were the portable army that would cry racism in front of your place of business until the company paid them off to go away.

Haven't we had enough? Are we going to allow the left to use its despicable acts of lies and intimidation to shut up legitimate dissent on a subject that has nothing to do with race? Are we going to allow the professional race hustlers like Jesse Jackson and Al Sharpton to continue their shakedown rackets — so memorably exposed by Shelby Steele in his book White Guilt: How Blacks and Whites Together Destroyed the Promised of the Civil Rights Era?

If we let them get away with Saturday's stunt — using the imagery of the Civil Rights era and hurtful lies to cast aspersions upon the tea party whole — then they really will have won the day.

It's time for the allegedly pristine character of Rep. John Lewis to put up or shut up. Therefore, I am offering $10,000 of my own money to provide hard evidence that the N- word was hurled at him not 15 times, as his colleague reported, but just once. Surely one of those two cameras wielded by members of his entourage will prove his point.

And surely if those cameras did not capture such abhorrence, then someone from the mainstream media — those who printed and broadcast his assertions without any reasonable questioning or investigation — must themselves surely have it on camera. Of course we already know they don't. If they did, you'd have seen it by now.

THOUSANDS OF TIMES.

Mr. Breitbart does a courageous, and very intelligent, thing here offering his own money in an effort to clear the air. Liberals have been hate-mongering, victimizing, violently protesting and scapegoating for too long now. Let's get the honest truth from the leftists in power and see who truly is the liar in Washington.

God Bless America and EVERYONE in it.

Welcome to 1938 Nazi Germany when the brown shirts hit the streets to marginalize and isolate the Jews. They created the atmosphere of hate to dehumanize their victims allowing otherwise responsible people to look upon these people with contempt. Once that happened they became enemies of the state enabling the state to do what they want with them free from moral outrage.

The propaganda from the MSM makes the Fascist propaganda teams look like pikers.

Ask yourself why are they quick to make the right look so violent?

Why are the Tea Party leaders and elected Republicans giving the news outlets a free pass?

Why are we not in front of every news room building demanding them to not make us the Jews circa 1938?

Obama will soon mark all his opponents with a proverbial big red R, not for republican but Racist, in his amnesty push. Until November, the true enemy is the media. They are the new brown shirts and must be confronted now.

They know that the racial divide is their biggest tool in their arsenal of dirty tricks.

Just that fact alone that we, as living breathing free people continue to segregate by habit, by nature and comfort zone, personal likes and dislikes, economic status, etc.. That's why we have Black communities and Hispanic communities, Asian communities etc. and yes, if you want to lump all the "Of European-English-Irish-Scottish-Polish-Danish-Dutch-Sweedish-Italian-Russian (they call us all white)... etc.

Progressives always pull out the race card, pretend as though people are somehow compelled by outside forces to segregate and refuse to admit it's is in a big way part of our natural human social choice.

IMPORTANT:

Make sure you go to every protest armed with video cameras.

If you catch someone yelling a racial epithet or otherwise thuggish behavior, call them out. Try to find out who they are. Follow them to their car and get their tag number. Odds are that this will be an infiltrator and we need to produce the evidence.

used at the same time in different parts of the country. And again, where is security camera evidence routing these people out? I'm guessing it there...

Excellent Andrew! No proof. No video. No police report. Nothing.

"They got nothing. Nothing!"

An interesting aside...I ran into a copy of Life magazine from 1963 and JFKs assassination and interestingly enough there is also an article about the civil rights movement.

Even more interesting is that in the civil rights article it states, to paraphrase, that the protests were peaceful UNTIL, Life speculated, that a group of communist agitators stepped in and instigated violence and destruction. This is a very old tactic.

I urge everyone to find a copy of the November 29,1963 edition of Life magazine.

The violence of any peaceful protest can almost always be traced back to one of two sources: 1)agitprop communists or 2)agitprop anarchists. Sometimes they work in tandem.

I've been to the rallies in Washington & never heard a racially charged word @ any of them. Can they just accept the fact the majority of American people are pissed off at the fact Pelosi & her ilke are spitting on our Four Fathers & our most sacred of documents? No they can't & that's the problem. So they look for another avenue for America to focus on so they can go back to their socialization of America. America is saying " NOT IN MY HOUSE". If they continue their ways then there will be violence & that is something I never want to see on this soil.

Forget the dispute over the "natural born citizen" requirement of the U.S. Constitution for presidents, Barack Obama may not even be a "citizen," according to a new filing in a long-running legal challenge to his eligibility to occupy the Oval Office.

"Under the British Nationality Act of 1948 his father was a British subject/citizen and not a United States citizen and Obama himself was a British subject/citizen at the time Obama was born," says a new filing in the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals in the case Kerchner v. Obama.

"We further contend that Obama has failed to even conclusively prove that he is at least a 'citizen of the United States' under the Fourteenth Amendment as he claims by conclusively proving that he was born in Hawaii."

The submission comes from attorney Mario Apuzzo, who is handling the case. His brief argues against the earlier document from Obama's attorneys demanding that the case be dismissed.

WND reported when the lawyer argued that the most common reason judges have used to dismiss cases against Obama – a lack of "standing" – is just wrong.

Obama's argument for dismissal relies almost exclusively on standing.

See the movie Obama does not want you to see: Own the DVD that probes this unprecedented presidential eligibility mystery!

"How can you deny he's affecting me?" Apuzzo said recently during an interview with WND. "He wants to have terror trials in New York. He published the CIA interrogation techniques. On and on. He goes around bowing and doing all these different things. His statements we're not a Christian nation; we're one of the largest Muslim nations. It's all there."

The case was brought by Apuzzo in January 2009 on behalf of Charles F. Kerchner Jr., Lowell T. Patterson, Darrell James Lenormand and Donald H. Nelson Jr.

Named as defendants are Barack Hussein Obama II, the U.S., Congress, the Senate, House of Representatives, former Vice President Dick Cheney and House Speaker Nancy Pelosi.

The case alleges Congress failed to follow the Constitution, which "provides that Congress must fully qualify the candidate 'elected' by the Electoral College Electors."

The complaint also asserts "when Obama was born his father was a British subject/citizen and Obama himself was the same." The case contends the framers of the U.S. Constitution, when they adopted the requirement that a president be a "natural born citizen," excluded dual citizens.

In a statement on his blog, Apuzzo said the next step in his case is a decision from the court.

"We will now wait and see if the 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals grants my request for oral argument and if so when the oral argument will be," he said.

His latest filing also has been posted online.
